Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time - June 17, 2012

They that are planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God.

—Psalm 92:14

SCRIPTURE THEME:

GOD'S TIME

We either pay attention to or ignore "clock time" as we play in the summer sun and note the earth's tilt and the lengthening days. We live by time. We reckon time in seconds and minutes and hours, or we use broader chunks like supper-time and summertime.

God keeps another sort of time. God speaks to us of "saving time," that is, the time of salvation. This sense of time is called kairos, and this time is always now, always present and available, always revealing, often surprising.

This Sunday's readings alert us to the reality and the import of God's time. Ezekiel and the Gospel of Mark remind us that our labor and our plotting and our planning rest in God. For God takes our smallest efforts and makes of them great works. Paul points us to the "harvest" time, urges us to be watchful for its coming, and calls us to recognize that we must spend our time pleasing God.

COLLECTION FOR SEMINARIANS:

Today there will be a second collection taken up at all the Masses to help defray the cost of educating men for the priesthood. The Burse Club, conducted by the Ladies of the Burse affiliated with the ACCW, is a tremendous help, but it does not cover all the large expenses of educating future priests. Remember, your offering stays here in the Archdiocese of Mobile to educate young men to serve here. Your help will be greatly appreciated. Besides your financial help, the Archdiocese needs your constant help in praying for the vocations we already have, and for more vocations. The Lord tells us to Pray to the Lord to send more workers into his vineyard.
