Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the Rector: I am happy to announce that Mr. Charles Clinton Doolittle is our new Director of Music for The Cathedral Basilica of The Immaculate Conception. Many of you already know Mr. Doolittle from his many years of participating in sacred music activities throughout the region and other music activities in the region. He served as Organist and Choral Master at Trinity Episcopal Church here in Mobile from 1988-2008 and prior to accepting the position here at the Cathedral was the Organist and Director of Music at Corpus Christi Parish here in Mobile. Also he has been the accompanist for Music Sacra and Mobile Opera. His talents and love for sacred music will insure the rich tradition of beautiful sacred music here at the Cathedral and I know he has "ideas" in the works to highlight the beauty of our program for the greater community. Mr. Doolittle is also interested in fostering more members to the choir from the parish and assisting anyone who wishes to volunteers as cantors to lead the faithful. He will formally begin as Director of Music on September 21, but is already planning and giving input for our choir and other sacred music activities at the Cathedral. Please join me in welcoming this talented man to our Cathedral Parish!
