R.C.I.A.

Classes begin Tuesday evening, September 4 at 6:00PM in the Portier House. R.C.I.A. classes present the basic doctrines of the Christian Faith as lived and believed by the Catholic Church. Sessions provide a variety of information from understanding the sacraments, the Mass, moral teachings of the Catholic Church, an understanding of the liturgical year and allows participants to ask questions and continue their own relationship with the Lord. Primarily geared for non-Catholics, the sessions welcome Catholics wanting to learn more about their faith and for Catholics who may be returning to the faith. For more information call the Parish Office or email us at ca-thaom@bellsouth.net.
